

Jorgensen – Youth Professional Development

Duties and Expectations

Intern Description:

- Interest in Engineering related field (Civil – preferred)
- General responsibilities include assisting with engineering design, construction observation and material testing.
- Position requires good communications skills, ability to perform multiple tasks, strong computer skills, and willingness to learn.
- Must be personable and able to communicate well and show maturity in dealing with clients and co-workers
- Projects include a variety of private and public sector work.

General Skills Required:

- Team Player
- Good Communication and Writing Skills
- Detail Oriented
- Knowledgeable of various computer applications including Word and Excel

Potential Duties Include:

- Material Testing assistance
 - Concrete breaking / reporting
 - Concrete placing/testing assistance
 - Soil gradations & assistance
- Survey Technician support
 - Surveying assistance (as applicable)
- Engineering Technician Support
 - Drafting / CAD support (as applicable)
 - Design for various projects, as applicable
 - Project observation, as applicable